

AFCC's Ninth Annual Symposium on Child Custody Evaluations Scholarship Guidelines and Criteria

Thanks to the generous support of AFCC members who contributed to the AFCC Scholarship Fund, four scholarships will be awarded for AFCC's Ninth Annual Symposium on Child Custody Evaluations, October 28-30, 2010 in Cambridge/Boston, Massachusetts. The AFCC Resource Development Committee determines the number and type of scholarships available each year.

Symposium Scholarships

Each of the four symposium scholarships includes registration for a pre-symposium institute, general symposium registration, luncheon and a certificate of attendance.

CRITERIA

The following information is considered in selecting scholarship recipients:

AFCC Membership:

Preference is given to AFCC members, although anyone may apply. If you are not a member and would like to join AFCC, complete the online membership application at www.afccnet.org or contact AFCC at afcc@afccnet.org or (608) 664-3750.

Prior Attendance:

Preference is given to applicants who have never attended an AFCC conference or symposium.

Prior Scholarship Recipient:

Due to the substantial increase in the number of applications, previous AFCC scholarship recipients will not be considered.

Additional Funding Support:

Because of the increased need for support, the selection committee asks if additional funding support is provided by an employer or source other than AFCC.

Financial Need:

Personal financial need of the applicant is a major consideration of the committee.

Relevance of Organization/Practice:

The relevance of the applicant's organization/practice to AFCC's mission. AFCC's mission statement can be found at www.afccnet.org/about/mission.asp.

Diversity Consciousness:

AFCC strives for diversity among colleagues, professions and services. Our collective differences enhance the work of AFCC by providing many different perspectives. Diversity includes, but it is not limited to: age, ethnicity, geographic region, disability, race, religion and sexual orientation.
