AFCC is the premier interdisciplinary and international association of professionals dedicated to improving the lives of children and families through the resolution of family conflict.

The Fundamentals of Conducting Parenting Plan Evaluations

An expanded 28-hour online training program for professionals interested in parenting plan evaluations.

March 11-14 and March 18-20, 2024

This comprehensive parenting plan evaluation (PPE) training program is conducted online by a team of leading practitioners and trainers. The program will take place in two segments per day, two hours each. Recordings of all sessions will be available for registrants.

This program will incorporate a complete overview of the parenting plan evaluation process, including:

- Definition of the purpose and roles of the parenting plan evaluator
- Specifics of the evaluation process, including interviewing, recordkeeping, and use of technology
- Implications of intimate partner violence and resist-refuse dynamics
- Updates on current research
- Implications of relocations and consideration of children with special needs
- Implications of child maltreatment, including sexual, physical, and emotional abuse
- Development of parenting plans
- Review of cultural considerations, biases, and ethical issues
- Utilization of psychological testing
- Best practices for report writing and testifying

Participants will learn the difference between a forensic role and a clinical role, how to review court orders and determine what information should be obtained, strategies for interviewing adults and children, how to assess coparenting issues, how to develop and test multiple hypotheses, and how to craft recommendations.

SESSIONS

1. Purpose and Roles: This session will provide an introduction to and an overview of parenting plan evaluations, and the specific roles and responsibilities of the evaluators.
2. PPE Process I: This session will outline the parenting plan evaluation process and examine use of collaterals and parent-child observation. Remote interviews, as well as record keeping best practices, will be discussed.
3. PPE Process II: This session will delve into the information gathering process and explore relevant versus irrelevant information. Specific strategies for interviewing children and adults forensically will be reviewed. Difference between diagnoses and assessment of parent functional behaviors and coparenting will be explored.
4. PPE Process III: This session will examine screening for intimate partner violence (IPV) and discuss the impact of IPV on families and the parenting plan evaluation process.
5. PPE Process IV: In this session, a multifactorial model for resist refuse dynamics and assessment considerations will be presented.
6. The Research I: This session will explore the current research literature on the effects of divorce on children, issues with high conflict parents, and gatekeeping.
7. The Research II: This session will focus on current research literature on young children, parental mental health, and substance misuse within the context of child custody.
8. Parenting Plans: This session will provide an overview of best practices for developing effective, supported, and developmentally appropriate parenting plans. Implementation problems related to transitions and long distance, as well as step-up parenting plans, will be discussed.
9. Cultural Diversity and Considerations: This session will examine ethnic, cultural, and diversity issues that may arise when conducting parenting plan evaluations. Unique considerations related to religious perspectives, ethnic and racial diversity, and same-sex couples, will also be shared.
10. Hypothesis Testing and Cognitive Biases: This session will explore hypothesis testing, articulate the importance of developing multiple hypotheses, and provide instructions on how to do so. Use of decision trees will also be described. The problems associated with heuristics will be explored, along with further explanation of various types of cognitive biases.
11. Psychological Testing: This session will explain the place of psychological testing in child custody evaluations, including when and how to use testing. Numerous psychological tests will be described, including objective tests such as the MMPI-3 and STAXI, projective tests such as the R-PAS, parenting tests such as the PAM and CAPI, and child assessments such as BASC. The appropriate use of computer-generated reports will also be reviewed.
12. Child Maltreatment: This session will focus on sexual, physical, and emotional abuse, and challenges that arise when these issues become part of parenting plan evaluations.
13. Relocation and Children with Special Needs: This session will explore challenging issues occasionally encountered in parenting plan evaluations such as relocation and children with special needs.
14. Report Writing and Testifying: This session will provide an overview of the components of a report, including an explanation of the importance of providing well-articulated analysis and synthesis. A primer for drafting recommendations that are well-supported and specific will also be shared.

Training Team

Chioma Ajoku, JD, PhD, ABPP, is a private practitioner in New York State and the owner of Forensic Psych Solutions. The focus of her practice is forensic evaluations and child/adolescent therapy. Dr. Ajoku graduated cum laude from Dartmouth College with a BA in Psychological and Brain Sciences. She then obtained a dual degree, MA/JD (psychology/law), from Duke University and Duke University School of Law, and was admitted to the NYS Bar. She subsequently obtained her PhD in Clinical Psychology from the CUNY Graduate Center via the John Jay College of Criminal Justice. Additionally, Dr. Ajoku completed her clinical internship year at Rutgers University in Piscataway as the Adolescent Forensic Track intern. Afterward, she completed a Child and Family Forensic Postdoctoral Fellowship at William James College. Dr. Ajoku is licensed to practice psychology in New York State. Currently, she serves on the Mental Health Professionals Certification Committee for the First and Second Judicial Departments of New York, the AFCC Continuing Education Committee, the AFCC Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Committee, the editorial board of Family Court Review, and the board of AFCC.

Robin M. Deutsch, PhD, ABPP, is a Board certified psychologist in Couple and Family Psychology (ABCFP) and a Fellow of the American Psychological Association. She provides consultation, mediation, parenting coordination and expert witness services. She developed and was the director of the Center of Excellence for Children, Families and the Law at the William James College where she was a Professor of Clinical Psychology. Previously she was an Associate Clinical Professor of Psychology at Harvard Medical School and Director of Training in the Children and the Law Program, Department of Psychiatry at Massachusetts General Hospital. She has published extensively on issues related to attachment, alienation, co-parenting after divorce, high conflict divorce, intimate partner violence, parent-child contact problems, parenting plans, and parenting coordination, and is the co-editor with Abigail Judge of the book Overcoming Parent-Child Contact Problems: Family-Based Interventions for Resistance, Rejection, Alienation (Oxford, 2016). Dr. Deutsch served on both the first Association of Family and Conciliation Courts (AFCC) and APA task forces that developed Guidelines for Parenting Coordination, the AFCC task force for Guidelines for Examining Intimate Partner Violence and the AFCC task force for Court-Involved Therapists. She is the 2018 recipient of the Association of Family and Conciliation Courts (AFCC) John E. Van Duzer Distinguished Service Award.

April Harris-Britt, PhD is a licensed psychologist practicing in North Carolina and Virginia. In addition to providing child, adolescent, adult, and family therapy, Dr. Harris-Britt conducts comprehensive psychological evaluations, forensic evaluations, comprehensive child custody evaluations, civil guardian ad litem evaluations, and parental competency evaluations. She also serves as a Parent Coordinator. Specific areas of clinical and research expertise include trauma and violence; child development; developmental psychopathology; adoption and attachment; medically fragile children; divorce transitions; ADHD and learning disabilities; autism spectrum disorders; and the assessment and application of multicultural issues. She focuses on using a strengths-based, systems approach to assessment and treatment. Dr. Harris-Britt contributes to research and teaching at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and Fielding Graduate University where she serves as the Lead Faculty for the Forensic Concentration. She is currently a member of the APA Working Group to Review Scientific Literature for High Conflict Family Relationships and the APA Board of Professional Affairs. She serves on the AFCC Committee on Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion, and previously served on the AFCC Task Force on Model Standards of Practice for Child Custody Evaluations which revised the 2022 Guidelines for Parenting Plan Evaluations in Family Law Cases. She is currently President for the North Carolina Chapter of AFCC.

Kathleen McNamara, PhD is a licensed psychologist in private practice in Fort Collins, CO, specializing in counseling and forensic psychological services for court-involved families. She has conducted hundreds of parenting evaluations, consults with attorneys and mental health professionals about complex issues in family law cases, and is a parenting coordinator, decision-maker, and therapist. She was the reporter for the 2022 AFCC Guidelines for Parenting Plan Evaluations in Family Law Cases. Before devoting herself to full-time practice, she was a tenured Associate Professor in the Department of Psychology at Colorado State University, where she was a teacher, researcher, and clinical supervisor for fourteen years. She is a former president of the Colorado Chapter of AFCC and remains involved in program planning and chapter development. She is a past chair and former member of the Colorado Psychological Association Ethics Committee and serves on the Colorado Supreme Court Standing Committee on Family Issues and the 8th Judicial District Domestic Relations Best Practices Team.

Terry Singh, PhD, ABPP, is a clinical and forensic psychologist whose areas of special interest include working with high-conflict families of divorce and separation, child custody evaluation, consideration of cultural factors in assessment and treatment, and the treatment of severe and persistent psychopathology. While his clinical practice is largely focused on working with children and families in his home province, he has also assisted in national and international relocation matters, including Hague Convention applications. He is a regular presenter and trainer at AFCC and other international conferences, and has authored articles on issues regarding child and family forensic psychology. He is a board member of AFCC Alberta, and currently chairs the AFCC Alberta Chapter's Programming Committee.

General Information

What's Included?

The registration fee includes live attendance to the program, access to the program materials including recordings and handouts from the presentation, and a certificate of attendance. Each attendee's certificate will reflect the hours viewed live only.

Note: If you are unable to attend live, recordings of the training programs will be available at a reduced price following the completion of the training programs. Continuing education credit is only available for programs attended live.

What Equipment Do I Need?

AFCC recommends using a desktop or laptop computer to take full advantage of Zoom's capabilities. This will provide a better viewing experience and will permit access to features not available on the Zoom app on tablets and smart phones. A stable internet connection is imperative for the best viewing experience. If you lose internet service, you may call into the training (call in numbers will be included in your confirmation email) and follow the slides that are available in advance of each program.

A Zoom account is not required if you are simply joining Zoom as a participant. It may, however, be simpler to sign on if you have an account. Please note that you must sign on from your own Zoom account. If you use a Zoom account that is registered in someone else's name, your attendance will not be recorded and AFCC will not be able to issue you a certificate of attendance. To insure you receive proper credit, use a Zoom account associated with the same email address you use for your AFCC profile. You can sign up for a free Zoom account at zoom.us/signup.

Continuing Education Credits

The Fundamentals of Conducting Parenting Plan Evaluations training program is eligible for 28 hours of continuing education for psychologists. AFCC is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. AFCC is recognized by the New York Education Department's State Board for Psychology as an approved provider of continuing education for licensed psychologists #PSY-0190. AFCC maintains responsibility for the program and its content. AFCC will make application for continuing education credits for social workers through the National Association of Social Workers. A certificate of attendance will be provided to all attendees. Attendees may use the AFCC Certificate of Attendance to verify attendance and apply for continuing education in their jurisdiction. Each attendee's certificate will reflect the training hours viewed live only. Other professionals may opt to apply for continuing education credits in their discipline in their jurisdiction by providing their certificate of attendance, the brochure, and any training materials directly to their accrediting body. AFCC will not be applying for CE for attorneys for this training program due to the vast difference in requirements across jurisdictions. Attorneys are able to apply for CLE in their jurisdiction on their own, but AFCC cannot guarantee that credit will be awarded.

This program is Approved by the National Association of Social Workers (Approval # 886478123-8598) for 28 continuing education contact hours. Please be aware that the following states do not accept the National CE Approval Programs and require individual program/provider application processes: New Jersey (Applications may be filed with the NASW New Jersey Chapter); New York (Applications may be filed with the NASW New York State Chapter); and West Virginia.

Cancellation Policy

Transfer of registration to another person may be made once, at any time without a fee. All requests for refunds must be made in writing. Written notice of cancellation received by fax, sent, and confirmed by email or postmarked by February 27, 2024, will be issued a full refund minus a $75 administrative fee. No refunds will be issued for cancellations received after February 27, 2024. AFCC reserves the right to cancel any training or substitute any presenter should circumstances beyond our control arise.

Time Zones

While it is not possible to schedule all sessions for daylight hours in all countries, recordings will be made available for purchase after the program has concluded. Please contact AFCC at afcc@afccnet.org for further information. The certificate of attendance will only include time logged while attending the initial live sessions.
